LANDS AND DISTILLERY FOR SALE.

To be sold by public roup, within the house of George Turner, vintner in Falkirk, on Monday the 9th September next, betwixt the hours of one and three o'clock afternoon,
THE LANDS, MANSION-HOUSE, OFFICES, MALTINGS, and DISTILLERY OF UNDERWOOD, lying close upon the banks of the great canal betwixt Forth and Clyde, within the parish of Falkirk, and county of Stirling.

The Lands are all inclosed and subdivided, contain nearly 150 Scots acres, about 100 are arable, and the remainder were planted a good many years ago, and the plantations are thriving. The Mansion-house is modern and commodious; stables, byres, and other offices, newly built, are attached to it, and the ground around it is garden and shrubbery beautifully laid out.
The Maltings, two in number, are upon the largest scales, and the grain is brought by water to the very doors.
The Distillery-houses, cellars, and feeding-byres are also extensive and conveniently laid out. The Distillery has an abundant supply of good water, which falling in at the very top of the mash-house, and from thence descending through the water works, is a great saving of manual labour and expense; and by the canal the manufactured produce can at once be shipped to any part of the world.

In short, a situation so central, lying nearly half way betwixt Edinburgh and Glasgow, and uniting so many real advantages for carrying on a manufactory of any kind, is not to be found any where else.
The premises will be shown by Mrs Colquhoun, the tenant, at Underwood; and Messrs Alexander Littlejohn, or James Chrystal, writers in Stirling, will inform as to other particulars, and who will be ready to treat with those inclining a private bargain.

THE GENUINE DISTINGUISHED FROM COUNTERFEITS.

By the King's Patent.
MR R. JOHNSTON, Apothecary, No. 15. Greek Street, Soho, aware of the deceptions made on every Public Medicine of established reputation and extensive sale, respectfully informs the Nobility, Gentry, and Public, he has obtained the King's Patent for his Invention, not to recommend but to distinguish WHITEHEAD'S ESSENCE OF MUSTARD from spurious imitations.
Five years have now elapsed since Mr Johnston first made known to the world this very extraordinary Medicine. During this short period its efficacy has been so clearly demonstrated that its sale has infinitely exceeded any former example. Comparatively, there are few families which have not either heard of or experienced its beneficial effects; and with heartfelt satisfaction he has the happiness to declare WHITEHEAD'S ESSENCE OF MUSTARD has cured more persons afflicted with Rheumatism, Gout, Lumbago, Palsy, Complaints of the Stomach and other Painful Maladies, than all the medicines ever before made public. It has obtained the approbation of many eminent men of the Faculty, and honoured with the unsolicited support and recommendation of the first families in the kingdom.

As the bottles, boxes, labels, and bills of direction of this original medicine are closely copied, and the words "By Royal Authority," artfully substituted for the words "By the King's Patent," it may elude common observation: Mr Johnston therefore recommends the afflicted to be particular in the purchase. Whitehead's Essence of Mustard, is prepared and sold, in Pills and in a fluid state, at 2s. 6d. each box or bottle, by the Inventor, R. Johnston, apothecary and chemist, No. 15. Green Street, Soho, London. It is distinguished from counterfeits "By the King's Patent," and the signature "R. Johnston," in his own hand-writing, on each label; sold also by his appointment, by ANDREW SMITH, No. 38. North Bridge, Husband, Elder, and Co. R. Scott, apothecary, Wm. Rieburn, and T. Spence, Edinburgh; Phorson, Berwick; Allan, Dundee; Inglis and Dixon, Dumfries; McIntosh & Co. Inverness; Craigie, Montrose; Cave, Banff; Mitchell, Aberdeen; Menzies and McDonald, Glasgow.

CHILBLAINS.

N.B. The Fluid Essence immediately allays their tormenting itching, and will assuredly prevent them from breaking, even when turned quite black; and if used according to the directions will absolutely cure them by three or four applications.

WESTMINSTER SOCIETY.

FOR INSURANCE ON LIVES AND SURVIVORSHIPS AND GRANTING ANNUITIES.

Established 1791. No. 479, STRAND—LONDON.

ROBERT LADBROKE, Esq. Chairman.

WILLIAM MORLAND, Esq. M. P. Deputy Chairman.

R. SKELTON, Secretary.

Mr Pitt, in the late discussion on the Income Bill, recommended to Parliament, which is wisdom thought proper to adopt,

Clause the 5th, in General Deduction from Income.

"Persons who have made or shall make insurance on their respective lives, or on the lives of their respective wives, shall be at liberty, in addition to any other deductions, to deduct the amount of the Premium of such insurance for the current year."

The attention of the Legislature to the prudent arrangement of every man anxious to provide for his wife, children, and dependents, renders it unnecessary to detail the advantages resulting from Life Insurance, as a measure of propriety. The Society have no ly to refer to their Printed Proposals for the terms and conditions, which may be had gratis.

This Society do not charge any addition of Premium for persons in a Volunteer Corps and Allocations, nor even in the Militia, provided their military services are confined to Great Britain.

THIS Society, finding that the business of their Institution has extended itself very considerably, have been able to make a great distinction in their Premiums upon Lives, &c. which are now rated at in the first sheet annexed.

For the convenience of the Public, they have appointed as their Agent

ROBERT ALLAN & SON, EDINBURGH.

JOHN BUCHANAN, Jun. Merchant, GLASGOW.

Of whom every information may be had, either for Informations or Annuities, and by whom Annuities will be paid, and printed proposals given out gratis.

A PHYSICIAN'S ATTESTATION.

A Remarkable Cure performed by
DR SIBLY'S RE-ANIMATING SOLAR TINCTURE; OR, PANACEUM OF LIFE.

TO E. SIBLY, M.D.

CLERGYMAN'S TESTIMONIAL.

MY duty as a Clergyman impels me to acquaint you of the remarkable success of your Re-animating Solar Tincture, under my own inspection.

It is with pleasure I embrace this opportunity of desiring you to make the case public; for I am sure that here has been strictly verified the Scripture observation, that "Honour is due unto the Physician, because he giveth ease, and provides a remedy to prolong life;" a more striking instance, perhaps, never occurred, than the one I am about to relate.

I must previously acquaint you, that no medical gentleman resides within a considerable distance of this place; and, as I endeavour to alleviate the distresses of the body, equally with my cure of souls, in my usual visits to my parishioners, I was unhappy in finding one of them, a female, labouring under the violence of a Cholera Morbus. She appeared indeed in a dying state, with a pulse scarcely perceptible, except when urged by frequent convulsions, every paroxysm returning with increased vehemence.

It was no time to deliberate; therefore considering the patient near her dissolution, I wished to do all I could, if possible to relieve her. I instantly administered to her a table spoonful of your Tincture, which I had by me, diluted with water, though you had not described it in your Medical Mirror as serviceable in complaints of this nature. For an hour there seemed no visible alteration, except an elevation of the pulse; however, the dose was repeated, and when I returned in an hour and half afterwards, the convulsions had ceased, and the vomiting very much abated. From these very favourable circumstances, I began to think her probably in a fair way of recovery, and gave orders for the Tincture to be administered every two hours. In fine, by these means, the complaint was entirely removed.

I am happy to add, that by continuing the Tincture for a few days, and leaving it off gradually, she has been rescued from the brink of mortality, to enjoy better health than she had experienced for many preceding years.

With due respect, I am your humble servant,

R. THOMPSON.

SALE OF LANDS IN ARGYLLSHIRE.

Upper Price L. 25,000 Sterling.

THE LANDS and ESTATE of KINGERLOCH will be sold by public roup, within the Royal Exchange Coffee-house, on Wednesday 30th day of November next, at two o'clock afternoon.

This estate, which lies on the sea coast, is of very great extent, and is considered as a good pasture for sheep and black cattle, as any in the Highlands of Scotland. The Harbour of Lochlorry, which affords a safe and commodious anchorage, abounds with fish of different kinds, particularly salmon; and the shores of the estate produce a considerable quantity of help annually. There is a good Manse-house with a large lawn, capable at a very little expense of being made a residence, in point of beauty and convenience, inferior to none in that country. There is a great appearance of lead in several of the adjacent hills.

The present rent of the whole property is L. 904 Sterling, but when the leases, some of which have only two years to run, expire, a very considerable augmentation may be looked for, as from the offers made to the late proprietor, he was led to expect a rent of near L. 1200 Sterling.

THE ISLAND of CARRA, situated in Lochanure, part of the above estate, presently yielding a rent of 61l. being detached, and a very great distance from the other lands, may be sold separately, should an offer incline. This island is now out of lease, and a considerable rise of rent may be depended on: It is peculiarly adapted for wintering; the shores are very productive in kelp, and the wood if properly preserved, may be very valuable.

The whole Lands hold of the Crown, and afford a freehold qualification in the County.

The progress of writs, articles of roup and leases, may be seen in the hands of Mr Alexander Keay, accountant, Queen Street, or Hector Macdonald Buchanan, writer to the signet, who have powers to treat by private bargain, and to whom intending purchasers may apply for further information.

ITCH INFALLIBLY CURED.

AT FIVE SHILLINGS.

BY JACKSON'S ORIGINAL OINTMENT.

PREPARED only by JAMES BARCLAY, (late T. Jackson)

No. 95. Fleet Market, London, where it has been prepared and sold for upwards of fifty years. It cures annually fifteen thousand persons, and was never known to fail.

It does not contain the least particle of Mercury, or any other pernicious ingredient, and may be used with safety by women with child, and infants newly born, and is not disagreeable in its flavour. Its safety and dispatch is fully manifested by the Faculty adopting it in their private practice, which several of the most reputable have done for many years.

It becomes particularly necessary to caution those who are afflicted with the above discomper against imposition, as several unprincipled men have substituted their own pernicious trash (whose basis is Mercury) in its stead, and, taking advantage of the death of Mr Jackson, have put his name to their preparation.—You will therefore observe, as you regard your health, that the name of J. Barclay is wrote on the stamp (affixed to each box) without which it cannot be genuine.—Price 1s. 9d. each box.

Sold by the Proprietor, JAMES BARCLAY, No. 95. Fleet Market, London—and by his appointment by

R. SCOTT, APOTHECARY,

WATSON & CO. AND J. BAXTER,

MEMORANDUM.

Ensign Thomas Venables, of the 4th regiment of foot, is superseded.

AUGUST 16.

After the levee yesterday a Chapter of the Order of the Garter was held, to invest Earl Camden with the blue ribbon worn by the late Duke of Dorset. His Lordship was introduced between the Dukes of York and Gloucester, the Knights Companions being present. The Prince of Wales assisted, being the next senior Knight to the Sovereign, in buckling the garter round his Lordship's knee. The Bishops of Salisbury and Winchester, and Sir Isaac Heard, attended the chapter.

A cabinet council was held in the closet, when a proclamation was signed for a further prorogation of Parliament from the 27th instant.

It is undetermined when Monsieur and his Suite leave town. In the mean time, the Prince of Wales, the Dukes of York, Cumberland, and Gloucester have called upon him, and every possible attention is paid to him. His Royal Highness resides in a house in Welbeck-street.

The new brigades which have been added to several regiments were occasioned by the circumstance of the militia volunteers, instead of being equally distributed among such corps as were defective in men, having crowded to a few regiments, which thus became so much overcharged, that additional brigades were obliged to be formed.

The Sea Fencibles at Poole, to the amount of 200 have volunteered their services to Capt. Boyle, whose command they are under, to go on board any ship, and wherever they are ordered by government.

The Sea Fencibles of Brighton, under Captain Sprouns, consisting of 200 men, have unanimously offered to follow their worthy commander on board any ship of war, if their service shall be required to repel an invading foe. They are excellent seamen, many having served in his Majesty's fleets, and with a company of militia, as marines, and a hundred landmen, would man a ship of the line.

The subscription for the erection of the Grand Naval Pillar is opened with great success in all the principal towns in England. The different Mayors and Magistrates give it their hearty support and protection, that of Newcastle excepted, who, to a very polite circular letter replied, "that the affected taxes could not enable the people of Newcastle to subscribe." The good people of Newcastle, if they do not possess a patriotic Magistrate, should for their own credit, have one at least that can write English.—Sun.

HOUNSLOW POWDER MILLS.

Yesterday morning, a few minutes before nine, the coming-house and four mills, which are called the Upper Mills on Hounslow Heath, the property of Mr. Butts, blew up with a dreadful explosion. The coming-house took fire first, and the mills followed, one after the other, with an interval of a very few seconds. Of the whole of the buildings there remained only one drying and one coming-house, in which, from the difference of their construction from that of the mills, the sparks that fell could not communicate with the powder. Two men only lost their lives. Two others were wounded, but not dangerously. The trees upon the spot were torn to pieces; and it is remarkable, that several rabbits who had burrowed near the spot were killed in their holes.

It is impossible to trace to what cause this and the other dreadful events of the same nature which have lately occurred, are to be attributed; whether, as the proprietors have expressed their suspicions, they have been produced by design, or whether they are the effect of negligence in those employed.

HAMBURG MAIL.

RECEIVED THIS MORNING.

VIENNA, JULY 31.

This day's Court Gazette contains the following supplement extraordinary:—"The general of cavalry Melas has sent the pleasing intelligence from the headquarters of Alessandria, under date of the 22d inst. of the surrender of that citadel to the Imperial royal troops.

The account proceeds to state the operations of the besieging army after which it adds,

"General Gardamme, the hostile Commandant of the citadel, finding danger approaching, and probably not willing to stand an assault, sent on the 21st, at half past two o'clock, by his Adjutant-General Louis, a letter to Field-Marshal Lieutenant Count Bellegarde, informing him: "That his answer to the first summons sent him, had just been such as it ought to be, and as Field-Marshal Lieutenant Count Bellegarde would himself have sent, under the same predicament. But that now, being able, without any reproach of conscience or fear of accusation, to listen to the calls of humanity, he was not disinclined to enter into a negotiation or capitulation, provided it were founded on such terms as Frenchmen, who knew how to make every sacrifice for honour, could accept.

"The bearer being unprovided with powers, he was sent back with the intimation, that he should fetch the necessary instructions and powers within two hours, and mention to the Commandant, that he should be responsible for all loss that should arise from farther delay.

"At 8 o'clock at night the fire was silent on both sides, and the capitulation concluded; by virtue of which the garrison, constituted prisoners of war, marched out at two o'clock in the afternoon of the 22d, laid down their arms on the glacis, and will be sent through Pavia to the hereditary dominions.

CONSTANTINOPLE—JULY 10.

It is this day rumoured here, that the Anglo-Turkish forces have taken the commercial city of Rossetta, on the Nile, which is near Alexandria.

The Porte, which has conferred many distinctions on Pashwan Oglu, has also given him the command of Romania, to combat the great hordes of banditti. The firm, which the Porte sent him on the 5th, calls him the pillar of the throne, the column of truth, the mirror of true Mahometanism, &c. But many people doubt whether this man will contribute to the preservation of internal tranquillity.

There is nothing new about Buonaparte, who is said to be still in the desert between Syria and Egypt, or at Salachie, the first post on the frontiers of Egypt, which might be considered as an advantage to the French General, in his critical situation.

And the sum of 15,915l. 3s. 3d. due by R. A. Harrison, Collector of Hull, in 1791.

Among the arrears of the Excise, Thomas Cole, Collector of Oxford in 1774, appears a defaulter in the sum of 3600l.

A considerable part of the arrears due from the Receivers General of Land and Assessed Taxes, is slowly expected to be received; and the Law Officers of the Crown are taking the necessary steps to recover the remainder.

Of the arrears due from country Postmasters, the sum of 1270l. 18s. 11d. is declared by the Solicitor to be irrecoverable. It is remarkable that several persons who have had the care of country Post-Offices, are among the defaulters.

Of the Scotch Post-Office arrears, the sum of 514s. 5d. is irrecoverable.

FRANCE.

Paris papers to the 10th instant, were received this morning. They bring us the important intelligence of the surrender of Alessandria to the Austro-Russian army, after a bombardment of several days, and at the moment when the Russians were mounting to the assault.

The garrison, consisting of 2200 men, are prisoners of war.

The bombardment at Mantua commenced on the 25th ult. with the best effect. All the out-works and the bridges were immediately destroyed, and the French were confined within the body of the place. In the night between the 25th and 26th, the garrison attempted a sortie, but were repulsed.

According to letters from Berne, of the 31st ult. the armies still occupied the same position.

By letters from Brussels, an insurrection has already appeared in different parts of Holland, connected with the defeat of the English.

Letters from Germany, pretend that the King of Prussia is determined to enter Holland, without however taking an active part in the coalition.

It is said from Vienna, of the date of the 26th ult. that General Maffena had made an offer to evacuate Switzerland, if the Austrians would, on their part, retire from that country. It is added that the Court had dispatched a courier to Petersburg, and that on his return a decision would be given on this subject.

The guard of the Directory has been doubled for some days.

Leghorn is evacuated, as well as the whole of Tuscany.

A letter from Leghorn, of the 16th of July, states that the news of the occupation of Naples by the insurgents was unhappily confirmed. The Republicans and patriots left Naples under the command of Cardinal Capeze Zurlo, archbishop of Naples, but were driven back by the insurgents. The Lazzaroni joined the insurgents. Fort St. Elmo had also surrendered.

It is stated with certainty that the bankers of Paris have agreed to lend Government thirty millions in bill of exchange at four months date.

The Spanish troops landed at Rochefort have received orders to march to Breff.

It is said that the Directory have been for some days very uneasy—they received information that the Jacobins intended to pay a visit to Sieyes and Barras in consequence of which cannons were placed, and the guard of the Luxembourg doubled.

SEMLIN—JULY 15.

The Grand Signior has appointed Pashwan Oglu a Bashaw with three tails, which will not only stop his hostile intentions against the Porte, but induce him to ally with his forces.

GENOA—JULY 26.

Our military inaction has continued twelve days, while the army of Naples was by degrees joining us. We were, however, preparing to advance when we received the distressing intelligence of the surrender of Alessandria.

LEGHORN—JULY 19.

The news of the occupation of Naples by the insurgents, is unhappily confirmed. It is said that the patriots and republican troops left Naples under the command of the Cardinal Capeze Zurlo, archbishop of that place, in order to fight the insurgents, but they were obliged to return, and retire into the forts, because the Lazzaroni, who had till then been quiet spectators of what was passing, joined the insurgents. That the patriots who were in the forts had capitulated upon condition of being transported to Toulon, but that Nelson had suspended the execution of the capitulation until the arrival of the king. It is said that Fort St. Elmo, which the French defended, is also taken. According to some accounts, it is said that before the patriots left Naples they either imprisoned or shot all the partisans of the king. They lay there were 5000 nobles and priests thrown into the sea at one time. The entry of the insurgents was followed with equal horrors, all those who contributed to the Revolution, were seized and either imprisoned or shot, and the nobles in particular who abandoned the king's cause, were pursued with the most unexampled fury, several were massacred by the people, and others were hung; several houses have been burnt or pillaged.

EDINBURGH—AUGUST 19.

SURRENDER OF MANTUA, &c.

Friday morning a Russian Officer and an English Messenger arrived in London, the former bringing dispatches from the Austro-Russian army, and the latter from LORD HENLEY at Vienna. His Lordship's dispatches are dated on the 5th instant. They both bring an official account of the surrender of Alessandria, and likewise of the surrender of Mantua.

At two o'clock on Friday afternoon, the Park and Tower guns were fired in consequence of the surrender of Alessandria and Mantua. The garrison of Mantua consisted of 13,000 men, who are to be sent back to France, to be exchanged for Austrians. The trenches before Mantua had been opened fourteen days. The loss of the Austrians during the siege does not exceed 200 killed or wounded. The garrison of Alessandria, consisted of 2,200 men.

The bombardment of Mantua commenced on the 25th ultimo, with the best effect. All the out-works and the bridges were immediately destroyed, and the French were confined within the body of the place. In the night between the 25th and 26th, the garrison attempted a sortie, but they were repulsed.

Thus it appears that since the month of April the Allies have taken Peshiera, Brescia, Pizzighetone, Milan, Turin, Ferrara, the citadel of Alessandria, and Mantua, which has all been effected by regular sieges. The French, on the contrary, starved out both Mantua and Luxembourg, by blockading them, and obtained possession of some other fortresses by treachery.

After this important capture, it is probable the allies pushed immediately forward to Genoa, as letters from thence speak of preparations making, which seemed to indicate a disposition to evacuate that city, in consequence of the intelligence having been received of the taking of Alessandria.

French papers down to the date of the 10th instant have arrived, and the Hamburg mail due on Wednesday.

According to letters from Brussels, an insurrection has already appeared in different parts of Holland, connected with the descent of the English.

In the interior of France the Chouans are again in great force—the conflict of party still continues in the capital, but the Directory, or rather the party of Sieyes and Barras, appear to have gained strength, by having made a convert of Gobier, being supported by the Council of Elders, and having also partisans in that of Five Hundred. On the other hand, the Parent Club of the Jacobins endeavours to gain strength from affiliated Societies, and the latter second their views, particularly at Marseilles.

It does not even appear that the 30,000,000 which the Directory have so long demanded from all the monied men of Paris, have yet been raised.

On the 8th, the Councils formed themselves into a Committee, to discuss the act of accusation against the Ex-Directors.

Meanwhile, the reigning directors have surrounded themselves with a double guard, and appear to assume an attitude, threatening the suppression of the clubs.

The Spanish troops landed at Rochfort have received an order to march to Breil.

A Paris paper says, news come from Genoa and Amsterdam at the same time agree in saying that Buonaparte has taken St Jean d'Acre and Damas, and that he is marching for Constantinople. This news is later than that from Vienna or London.

The passengers by the cartel which brought the French papers state that when they left Calais, part of our fleet which had sailed on the morning of Tuesday last, was off the French coast. Its appearance alarmed the town of Calais very much, the inhabitants retired with great precipitation up the country, and expresses were sent off to Paris, as it was expected that a landing was to be made there.

Nothing is known in France respecting the combined fleets, nor till the English armament appeared was any thing known of the troops destined for the secret expedition having either embarked or failed.

On account of the high winds some apprehensions are entertained respecting the safety of the fleet of transports which have sailed on the secret expedition, as well as of those waiting in the Downs for the second division of the armament, which is to be embarked this day, Monday, under the command of the Duke of York.

The Dolphin cutter left the former fleet about two o'clock on Wednesday morning, six or seven leagues distant from the North Foreland, at which time they were steering northward and eastward, with a fine breeze; a cutter left the Downs in the course of the same day to follow the fleet, having on board Colonel Cameron, and several other gentlemen of the army.

The Dutch Fleet, it is reported, have failed from the Texel, and put themselves under the protection of the British flag.

COMBINED FLEETS.

Friday morning an account was received at the Admiralty, of the arrival of EARL ST VINCENT at Spithead, in a very bad state of health.

Dispatches were likewise received from LORD KEITH, off Breil. The combined fleets had unfortunately reached Breil before his Lordship, where they are now at anchor.

The Spanish ship of the line which had separated from the combined fleet, in consequence of having carried away her top-masts, has got into Cadiz bay. She was Admiral GRAVINA's flag ship.

Letters have been received from LORD NELSON dated on the 19th ult. three days later than his dispatches brought by Capt. Parkinon. His Lordship was still in the bay of Naples, with the King on board the Foudroyant, where his Majesty held his Court.

SECRET EXPEDITION.

DOVER, AUG. 15.—4 O'CLOCK P. M.

This morning Captain Worthington, of the revenue cutter, belonging to Dover, arrived at Deal, and immediately set off in a chaise and four to town; he brought dispatches for Mr Dundas, but he quitted Deal this morning at five o'clock. He left the fleet, all well, at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, 20 leagues from the North Foreland, steering E. N. E. Since that time a very heavy gale at S. W. has come on.

We have not had such a gale for some months. About 13,000 troops are on Barham Downs, and more are coming every hour.

HULL, Aug. 17.

The Scorpion sloop of war that was ordered to convey the Hamburg, Bremen, and Embden ships from hence on the 7th instant, is not yet arrived.

Last Saturday the merchants and ship-owners at this port, finding that the Scorpion had failed for Cuxhaven with dispatches, petitioned the Lords of the Admiralty to appoint another convoy for the above ships, whose cargoes are for Frankfurt fair, which begins early in September; their Lordships accordingly have directed Admiral Dickson to send one immediately, and it is expected every day.

Yesterday and last night the wind at S. W. blew a very heavy gale; it being an off-shore wind, we hope the shipping on this coast would not suffer much from its violence.

During the gale of wind yesterday evening, a lighter with a man and boy on board, going down the Humber for ballast, struck upon a sand, when the boy was unfortunately forced overboard by the fall; the man immediately got into his small boat in hopes of saving him, but his endeavours were ineffectual, for he never got sight of him afterwards, and the man unable to gain his lighter, with great difficulty reached the shore, his boat half full of water. Another lighter, with corn, is said to have filled with water on the beach, and a third is yet missing.

Yesterday the ruinous walls of an old tenement in Blackfriars Wynd fell down and crushed a boy who was passing. He was carried to the Royal Infirmary, where he soon expired. There are several other tenements in the city in a similar state of ruin. One in Lady Stairs Close was reduced to ruin many years ago by fire—This is a thorough fare much frequented, and if the side walls fall, they may prove the death of many. Another tenement in Forester's Wynd has been in part taken down, and part remains suspended in air, a terror to every passenger. Part of the walls of the tenement lately burnt at the head of the Cowgate has also a threatening aspect. Unless these are speedily taken down, we may have cause to lament, but we will not be surprized if their fall be sudden and fatal.—We believe it falls to the Dean of Guild Court to attend to these matters, and we have no doubt they will do so without delay.

Upon Saturday the 3d curt. the Saltcoats corps of Volunteer Infantry, commanded by Major R. R. CUNNINGHAM, in consequence of an order, marched from Saltcoats to Lugton, near to Eglinton Castle, to meet General DRUMMOND, who inspected them there. And notwithstanding of the great fall of rain that day, the General was pleased to express himself in terms highly flattering to said corps, for their steadiness in manoeuvring, as well as for their neat appearance.

He was also further satisfied with them for coming to meet him at such a distance from home in such weather, a distance probably greater than any other volunteer corps in the county of Ayr has marched to meet their General.

A fellow hanged at Kennington on Monday last for forgery, presented a degree of unfeeling levity not equalled since the exit of Ahab. The preceding Sabbath was spent in riotous mirth. He had his bird and bottle: and the toast was, "A short life and a merry one." On passing the turnpike, he said he should pay as he came back. He borrowed a handkerchief from one of the spectators, and, after it had been used, flung it into the owner's face. His conversation was interlarded with oaths and blasphemy too horrid for repetition. He was dressed in kersieymer waistcoat and breeches, and new silk stockings.

BUONAPARTE.

A London paper has the following anecdote: When Buonaparte was in England about four years ago, that unfortunate Gentleman, Colonel Frederic, whose melancholy end most of our readers may remember, a native likewise of Corsica (and whose father had once claimed the crown) took much pleasure in shewing the young and promising visitor of this country every civility. When Buonaparte was about to return, his finances fell short, so that he could neither pay all he owed here, or the expenses of the journey. In this dilemma, the Colonel accepted a bill of 40l. the value of which was given to Buonaparte, on a promise of remitting money for the purpose of paying it when due. This, however, he forgot, and that disappointment, added to others in pecuniary matters, led the generous friend to that last act of despair which terminated his existence.

Such a breach of faith would be a reproach to any man, and tarnish the highest character. To break his word with a brave, old, and indigent friend, was inexcusable, and not like a man who had in him the seeds of greatness. The letter to Sir Sidney Smith, and the treatment of the wounded men of his own army, before Acre, are equally opposite to greatness of character in Buonaparte.

From Harwich we learn, through a gentleman just arrived there in a neutral vessel from Holland, that a great part of the mercantile people have removed their residence from that country to Bremen, Hamburg, and Altona, in consequence of the close blockade of their ports by the British fleet, and the consequent annihilation of the little trade they had left.

The Hereditary Prince of Orange has quitted the Court of Potsdam, and taken up his residence at Lingen, in Westphalia, upon the frontiers of Holland, in order to join the British or the Russian armament upon their first entry into that province. This Prince is the husband of the sister of the Sovereign of Prussia, by the same mother. The Duchess of York is half sister to both of them.

A gentleman in Suffolk has erected a capacious bath on the sea-shore, in which the temperature and quality of the air and water are brought as near as possible to that of the climates remarkable for the finest turtle. Several of these luxurious animals have thriven astonishingly in it. One female, the first inhabitant of the place, lately brought forth young, of which two are now living, strong and healthy.

The Bishop of Carlisle, during five weeks of his Chaplain's absence from the parish where his Lordship resides, regularly officiated in his place.

In some parts of Africa the women are admired in proportion to their bulk; and a beauty of the first magnitude is a load for an elephant. It must be acknowledged that African taste is not without admirers in this country, who, in the choice of a wife, are too apt to judge of the merit of a woman by her weight.

A Hamburg paper has the following paragraph: Swallow never carries a farthing of money, nor a watch in his pocket; in his quarters he cannot bear the sight of a looking glass, and says he has not looked at himself for these 40 years past.

Singular Accident.—On Saturday the 15th ult. as a gentleman was walking early in the morning by the Haven banks, near Exeter, he observed a large household loaf floating up the river; the singularity of the circumstance immediately arrested his attention. Presently after, at some distance behind the loaf, he saw a little hand lifted up just above the surface of the water; unable to swim he endeavoured to gain the arm with his cane, but found it impossible. Happily a labourer passed by, whom he engaged to hold the flaps of his coat: Thus supported, he stretched forward on the river, and having clasped the hand, drew out a fine girl, about nine years of age, apparently drowned. Means were directly used to restore suspended life—and although under the water many minutes, she was providentially restored, and is now perfectly well. On her being questioned, she could give no account where or how she fell in.

AN ASS OF SPIRIT.—A young man who kept an ass in the neighbourhood of Stroud, in Gloucestershire, for the purpose of carrying coals, &c. was in the habit of beating the poor ass unmercifully; as he was one day lately amusing himself in this barbarous way, the poor creature turned on him and soon brought him to the ground; some people coming to his assistance he was extricated, and the ass taken to a considerable distance; but as soon as he found himself at liberty, returned, renewed the attack, and so greatly injured the young man, that he was taken to the infirmary at Gloucester, with little hopes of recovery.

The Jacobins have very judiciously chosen a riding-house for the scene of their exertions at Paris. The Revolution was never more in need of whipping and spurring to prevent it from coming to a stand still.

Friday, the associate congregation of Paisley very harmoniously made choice of Mr PETER THOMSON, probationer, as colleague and successor to the Rev. Mr KINLOCH, their present Pastor.

DUBLIN, August 15.

By our quarterly return just made, the ports of this kingdom, for the ensuing three months, are continued shut to the export of every species of grain, and open to the import of Foreign Wheat and of British Wheat and Flour, at the lowest duties.

We have had a deal too much rain, and the weather still continuing greatly broken. Prices of Wheat have latterly considerably advanced, inasmuch as now to reach equal to 70s. a 71s. British per quarter, at this market, and will probably be yet higher, should the bad weather continue.

SALE OF LANDS IN ROXBURGHSHIRE.

To be sold by public roup, within the Royal Exchange Coffee-house, Edinburgh, on Monday the 18th November 1799, betwixt the hours of two and three afternoon, if not previously sold by private bargain.

THE LANDS and ESTATE of ORCHARD, in the parish of Cavers, and part of the LANDS of WEENS-LAND and WEENS-LAND MILL, in the parish of Hawick. These lands lie contiguous, and form together a compact estate, situated in a plentiful country, bounded on the north by the river Tiviot, and on the west by the inclosures of the town of Hawick, a good market town, in which several flourishing manufactures are established. The turnpike road from Carlisle to Berwick, by Hawick and Kelso, runs through the north part of the estate, and the turnpike road from Edinburgh to Newcastle, by Selkirk and Hawick, runs along the east side of it.

There is on the estate a genteel modern built Mansion-house, Stables, and other offices, a Garden well stocked with fruit trees; also several stripes and clumps of planting, in a thriving condition. The whole estate is inclosed, well watered, and in excellent order, and is situated in the immediate vicinity of an inexhaustible fund of marble, to which there is easy access by good roads.

The present free rent payable by a few substantial tenants, (putting a moderate valuation on the lands in the natural possession of the proprietor, on which is lately built a small neat house, called Orchard Cottage, with suitable offices,) is about five hundred and twenty-five pounds Sterling.

Such as incline to purchase, may apply to William Keith, Accountant, Edinburgh; William Balderston, W. S. or Mr Usher, at Crowhill, near Hawick. Mr Balderston will show rental, title-deeds, and articles of roup; and an inventory of the title-deeds, a copy of the rental, and a plan of the estate may be seen by applying to Mr Usher.

The Proprietor, or his servants, will shew the Mansion-house and grounds.

Mr Keith is empowered to sell by private bargain, and to receive offers betwixt and the day of sale.

EMBANKMENT.
To be Sold or Assigned,
LEASEHOLD RIGHT to the SANDS of BALDOON, GRANGE, &c. in the Bay of Wigtown, (in North Britain) and of the LAND which may there be recovered from the sea by Embanking.
These Sands are of great extent, being about 4000 Scots acres, or 5000 English, and of so fertile a quality as to be used for manure to the adjacent lands; when converted into arable or meadow land, they cannot be valued at a lower rent than 3l. per acre. The extent that may be recovered will depend on the expense to be laid out: a very moderate expense may certainly gain some hundreds of acres; but a person with a sufficient capital to lay out a large sum, will have much superior advantages, and be able to acquire a property of immense value.
The nature of the right to be conveyed will be highly advantageous to the lessee, as he will not only have the advantages of his possession during the currency of the lease, but at the expiry of it the proprietor will be bound to pay him twenty-five years purchase on the value of all the land that may have been gained.
For further particulars application may be made to William Mure, factor for the Earl of Selkirk at Kirkcudbright, or to Robert Hill, W. S. Edinburgh.
To be Sold by public roup, in the George Inn, Dumfries, on Wednesday the 25th of September, at one o'clock P.M.
THE REMAINDER of a LEASE for Fifty-seven years, to terminate at Whitsunday 1821, of the FARM of TERREGLESTOWN, in the stewartry of Kirkcudbright.
This farm consists of about 250 acres, situated within 1½ mile of Dumfries, of which the greatest part is sublet during the remainder of the lease, to a very substantial tenant, at 200l. per annum; and the remainder, being about 22 acres, lying nearest the town, along the high road, at present let for 12l. will be out of lease in three years, when it will let for 18l. or 20l. a year or more. The least of these sums is already offered.
The rent payable by the principal tacksman for the whole, including all public burdens, is 48l. 17s. 6d. per annum.
For further particulars application may be made to David Thomson, W. S. Edinburgh, or William Laidlaw, writer, Dumfries, either of whom will be ready to conclude a private bargain previous to the sale.
A considerable part of the price may remain in the hands of the purchaser.
FARMS TO LET
IN THE COUNTIES OF FORFAR AND FIFE,
For such a number of years as can be agreed upon, and entered to at Martinmas next
I.—MAINS of MELGUND, containing about 323 acres, all inclosed and divided.
II.—MILL and MILL-LANDS, containing about 72 acres
III.—BALNACAKE, containing 181 acres or thereby.
IV.—BLIBERHILL, containing 136 acres or thereby.
V.—BLIBER, containing 33 acres or thereby—all Scots measure.
The above farms lie in the county of Angus, and parish of Aberlemno. The lands are of good soil, in good heart, and possessed by wealthy and industrious tenants; they are conveniently situated for markets, being in the neighbourhood of Brechin, and Forfar the county-town, and near plenty of marle.
VI.—THE MILL and MILL-LANDS of PITHAIRN and SILVERTOWN, containing 62 acres or thereby.
VII.—MOORSIDE, BRIDGEHILLS, and EASTER CRAIG-HEAD, containing 92 acres or thereby.
VIII.—THE HANDCLES of NORTH SPITTLE and LONGHERHEAD. These lands lie in the county of Fife, and parish of Auchtermuchty.
IX.—PART of KINNINMOND, in the parish of Kinglassie, containing about 70 or 75 acres.
The mill is well supplied with water, and the situation would answer well for a bleaching; the tenant might have Moorside and Bridge-hills added to the Mill-lands, as they bound with them.
The lands are in the immediate neighbourhood of coal and lime, and capable of great improvement, at a moderate distance from Kirkcaldy, Kinghorne, and other towns on the sea coast, where a ready market is found for the produce.
The farms in the county of Forfar will be shown by William Webster, baron-officer; and the farms in Fife by Thomas Barclay in Lochgelly. Offers in writing to be given in or before the 23d August, to Mr. Alexander Scott at Lochgelly, factor to the Right Hon. Lord Minto; and offers not accepted shall be kept secret.
LANDS IN FIFE.
To be Sold by public roup, within John's Coffehouse, Edinburgh, upon Wednesday the 24th day of October next, at two o'clock afternoon.
THE LANDS of LOCHTON, lying in the parish of Kingsbarns.
This property is beautifully situated about a mile north from Crail, upon the post road to St. Andrew's, and commands a fine prospect of the Frith, and neighbouring country. It consists of about 199 acres, of which 60 acres are laid out in very thriving plantations, chiefly hard wood. The remainder is inclosed and subdivided, and possesses excellent situations for a manse-house, with a view to which the inclosing and plantations have been formed.
Being in the natural occupation of the proprietor, the purchaser will get possession at or before Martinmas. LIME to the amount of 300l. Sterling has been laid upon the lands, in the course of the last six years; and there is at present a considerable field in summer fallow, proposed to be sown into wheat, there being plenty of manure upon the ground.
These lands hold of a subject superior; but a freehold qualification in the county will be exposed along with them, if desired.
The Crop and Stocking on said Lands, consisting of wheat, barley, oats, beans, and hay, with draught horses, and some excellent young cattle, will be sold by public roup. The day of sale to be afterwards advertised.
Mr. Cowan, at Kippo, or the Overseer, at Lochton, will show the Lands; and for particulars apply to John Moir, writer to the signet, Edinburgh.

FARMS TO BE LET.
To be Let for 19 years, and entered to at the term of Martinmas 1800.
THE FARMS of EASTER GOSPETRY, GLENSIDE, and GOSPETRY-LAW, lying in the parish of Strathmiglo, and shire of Fife, as presently possessed by John Thomson, containing in whole near 270 acres of arable land, besides upwards of 70 acres of unarable and pasture grounds.
The Farm of BALNETHILL, lying in the parish of Portmuck, and shire of Kinross, as presently possessed by Thomas Robertson, containing upwards of 80 acres of arable land, besides about 200 acres of hill pasture.—Also the Lands of Balnethill Muir, lying disjoined from the farm about a half a mile, and containing 29 acres of arable land, with four acres of muir.
Proposals in writing for a lease of both, or either of these farms, may be transmitted to David Walker, merchant in Strathmiglo.
FARM IN PERTSHIRE.
To be Let by private bargain, on a lease for nineteen years.
THE FARM of MAINS of GORTHIE, as presently possessed by Duncan MacAndrew, (excepting the ground on the north side of the turnpike road leading from Perth to Crieff; together with the whole of the CHAPEL FARM, on the south side of the turnpike road, presently possessed by Andrew Ritchie.
These lands united, will contain in whole about 237 acres of excellent ground, lying in a favourable situation, about 10 miles west from Perth, on the side of the great turnpike road from thence to Crieff.
The entry to the Mains of Gorthie is to be at Martinmas next 1799, and to the above part of the Farm of Chapel at Martinmas 1800.
Proposals to be given in to Mr. James Lorimer, factor on the estate of Moncreiffe, at Horemelin near Perth, on or before Monday the 26th of August next, and such as are not accepted of shall be kept secret if desired.
FARMS IN SELKIRKSHIRE TO LET.
To be Let, for such a number of years as may be agreed on, and entered to at Whitsunday first.
THE following FARMS upon the ESTATE of SINTOWN, lying in the parish of Askrirk, and shire of Selkirk.
I. PARKHEAD, and SINTOWN MAINS. This Farm contains nearly 1000 acres, and in it is included the mansion-house of Sintown, and parks as formerly possessed by the proprietor, with garden, pigeon-house, and other conveniences.
II. LONGTOWN and BOWKNOW, presently possessed by Walter Thomson, and consisting of about 730 acres.
III. DIMPLEKNOW and SATCHELLS, consisting of about 570 acres, possessed by John Simson.
IV. SINTOWN MILN, containing 133 acres or thereby, possessed by John Redford.
V. WHINNFIELD, consisting of about 20 acres, possessed by John Scott.
VI. NOOKHAUGH, possessed by different persons.
The whole farms are mostly arable, and there is a plentiful fund of shell marle upon the estate, properly drained, and most conveniently situated for the improvement of the whole farms; and, as great part of the different farms are a good turnip soil, and well adapted for marle, great improvement may be made on each of them, particularly on Parkhead and Sintownmains, where the marle most lies. And, as the mansion-house of Sintown is fit to accommodate a genteel family, this last farm is worthy of particular attention, as few more complete, of its extent, are to be met with.
Offers in writing may be given in to John Lang, Sheriff Clerk, Selkirk, who will inform as to particulars, and John Scott at Whinnfield, will show the marches of the different farms.
FARMS IN FIFE.
To be Let and entered to at Martinmas 1800, either in whole, or separately.
THE TWO FARMS of BOGIE, with the planted Park and Gardens of the Old Mansion-house, comprehending in all about 260 Scots acres.
If these Lands are let in two Farms, the one will contain about 110 acres, the other about 150 acres.
They are inclosed and subdivided, and lie within one mile and a half of the burgh of Kirkcaldy, and within two miles of the Clunie Coal-works, to both which places they have access by excellent roads. They contain plenty of Limestone, very easily to be wrought, and from their situation and means of improvement, are worthy the attention of Farmers in general.
Proposals for renting these Lands to be given in writing to Robert Mitchell, Pathead, near Kirkcaldy, betwixt this and Martinmas next.—Paterson at Chapel will show the lands and the intended boundaries of the Farms.
Also, to be Let at Martinmas 1800.
THE FARM of MUTTONHOLE, as possessed by John Lawson. This Farm, consisting of about 70 acres, is presently, and has been for many years past, wholly in grass.—It is extremely well calculated for sheep pasture; and there can be added to it, if the tenants incline, two Inclosures well adapted to the same purpose.
Proposals to be given in as above.
FARM IN TWEEDDALE.
To be Let for such a number of years as may be agreed on.
THE FARM of UPPER SCOTTON, lying in the parish of Newlands.—The whole is at present in the occupation of the proprietor, and has been from six to nine years in grass. The Arable Ground to be entered to at Martinmas first, and the Houses and Grass at Whitsunday following.
Offers may be addressed to the proprietor at Scotston House; or to Mr. Horne, W. S. No. 3. George Street, Edinburgh, either of whom will inform as to further particulars.—And William Purdie, Overseer at Scotston, will show the Lands. No offer to be received after 15th October next, and such as are not accepted, will be concealed, if desired.
ESTATE OF CRAILING—ROXBURGHSHIRE.
THIS well-known, valuable, and compact ESTATE will be exposed to SALE by public roup (unless previously disposed of by private bargain), in John's Coffehouse, Edinburgh, on Monday the 25th day of November, at six o'clock afternoon; if not then sold, it will afterwards be put up in lots.
The present rent is 2171l. 3s. One of the principal farms is now out of lease, and two more will be so in 1800, on which a considerable rise of rent may undoubtedly be expected. The Estate consists of 2196 acres, and there is a very considerable quantity of valuable and thriving wood of various kinds, some of which, particularly near the house, is very old and large.—The lands hold of the Crown, and are of solid valuation to afford twelve freehold qualifications; and being situated within three miles of Jedburgh and six of Kelso, possess great convenience for markets, &c. The great post-roads from Kelso to Jedburgh and Hawick run through the middle of the lands. A considerable part of the purchase money may remain in the hands of the purchaser.
For further particulars application may be made at the proprietor at Craling House, by Jedburgh, or to Robert Trotter, Esq. writer to the signet, Edinburgh, in whose hands the title-deeds, rental, plan, and measurements may be seen. The gardener at Craling House will show the lands and boundaries.
By adjournment.
SALE OF LANDS IN THE COUNTY OF DUMFRIES
On the 19th day of September 1799, between the hours of one and three afternoon, there will be exposed to sale, by public roup, within the house of James Richardson, at Lockerbie, THE LANDS of BROOMHILL, lying in the parish of Lochmaben, and near the burgh. They are bounded partly by the Broomhill or Halketh's Lake, and partly by the river Annan and water of Kinnell, in which the tenants exercise their right of fishing salmon and trout, without rent. The extent of these lands is about 262 acres, and they are possessed by four tenants, who pay 120l. of rent, under leases which expire at Whitsunday 1814. They are pleasantly situated, and very improvable. They hold of the Crown, and are valued in the cess-books at 171 merks. Along with the lands of Broomhill or separately, will be sold, nearly 3 acres of Land, which lie in the Burgh Roads of Lochmaben, and are possessed by Mrs. Hoggan and John Millar, and also three Houses and 1 a Yard possessed by Mrs. Hoggan, and a House possessed by Robert Jardine, smith.
The lands will be shown by the different tenants; and for further particulars application may be made to William Stewart, at Hillside near Lockerbie, Mr. Keith accountant in Edinburgh, or Mr. Craufurd Tait, writer to the signet, Edinburgh. The articles of roup, title-deeds, and plans of the lands will be shown by Mr. Tait.

TO BE LET.
For any number of years not exceeding twelve, and entered to at Martinmas next, 1799.
THE HOUSE, GARDEN, and OFFICES of BALGARVIE, and county of Fife.
The house is modern, large, and elegant, and is fit to accommodate any family.
A lessee may have also about forty acres of rich ground, inclosed and laid down in contiguous grass fields.
For further particulars apply to Edward Bruce, clerk to the signet.
Joseph Low, gardener at Balgarvie, will show the premises.

The present rent is 351l. 15s. but at the end of the leases a great rise may be expected.
The lands of Stapleton hold of the Crown, and by an old retour they are proved to be a ten pound land of old extent, and consequently afford a freehold qualification. They are valued in the cess-books at 490 merks.

SALE OF LANDS AND PATRONAGES
In the Counties of Nairn and Inverness.
To be Sold by Public Voluntary Roup, within the Royal Exchange Coffehouse, Edinburgh, on the 20th day of November next, between the hours of two and three in the afternoon.
THE LANDS and ESTATE of GEDDES, commonly called Easter Geddes, lying within the parish and county of Nairn.
These lands are pleasantly situated on the banks of the river Nairn, and command a delightful prospect of the Moray Frith, and the opposite coast of Ross and Cromarty. They lie within three miles of the Royal Burgh of Nairn, where there is a good weekly market remarkably well supplied with fish and provisions of all kinds, on most reasonable terms.
The lands of Geddes are presently rented at about 220l. Scots, but on the expiry of the present leases they will rise nearly double. One of the principal farms is presently let on a new lease of two lives, and as both the tenants are upwards of 70 years of age, access will be had to it in all probability within a few years, and double rent has already been offered for that possession.
The lands are well known to be of a rich fertile quality, and capable of producing every kind of grain. There is a young thriving plantation on the property, upon which no value is put, and it has a right in common to some extensive moor, which on a division might be planted or turned into pasture, with much advantage to the proprietor.
The public burdens affecting this property are comparatively small, and as the tenants are valued and the stipend of the parish lately augmented, any future augmentation will affect the proprietor of Geddes in a trifling degree.
The Lands hold of the Crown, and entitle the proprietor to vote for a member of Parliament to the county of Nairn.
The LANDS of BROADLE, HOWFORD, & TOMINDOUL, with the Mills thereof commonly called Broadle Mills, with an eighth part of the Grieshop Lands of the burgh of Nairn, together with the Crofts called SMITH'S CROFTS. These Lands also lie on the banks of the river Nairn, in the vicinity of the burgh of Nairn, and parish and county thereof. They are of a fertile kindly quality; and as the rent has not been raised for many years, and as the nature of all kinds can be had upon easy terms from Nairn, a considerable rise of rent may be reasonably expected. The present rent is about 80l. Sterling. The proprietor has right to the tenants, and the same have been valued. The whole of these lands hold fen of the town of Nairn for payment of 3l. 4s. 8d. Sterling of fen duty.
The LANDS of FLEEMINGTOWN, lying within the parish of Petty, and county of Inverness. This property is of a very considerable extent, and of a most improvable quality, having the command of inexhaustible mosses within itself, and there have lately been discovered some beds of marle.
It is situated in the near vicinity of the Garrison of Fort George, which always affords a ready and good market for the produce of the estate. The present rental is upwards of 320l. Sterling; but from the rapid progress of improvements in that part of the country, and the natural advantages which the Lands of Fleemingtown possess, a very great additional rent may be looked for on the expiry of the present leases, all of which have only a few years to run. These lands hold of the Earl of Moray for payment of a yearly feu duty of 20l. Scots.
The proprietor has right to the tenants, and the same were valued some time ago.
THE DONATION, PRESENTATION, and RIGHT PATRONAGE of the parish of Moy, lying within the Presbytery and County of Inverness. And also, an ALTERNATE Right of Presentation to the Parish of Croy, lying in the Presbytery and County of Nairn.
All these lands and patronages will be disposed of in one lot, or, if more agreeable to intending purchasers, in two or more as wished for.
The titles to these different properties are clear, and together with plans of the estates may be seen in the hands of Archibald Dunbar, W. S. who will also inform as to other particulars.
